

The war continues and it is a long war

Can you remember the years when Israelis considered antisemitism a Diaspora issue?

by Phyllis Chesler

This coming weekend (November 1-3), the University of Minnesota history of SJP has holding a rally on the same weekend, on Sunday, November 3rd.

On a sobering critique of the cleverly devious view that attacking BDS is an attack on legitimate "dissent." The faculty has launched a petition castigating or taking issue with the Chancellor.

A cursory view of the signatories reveals that one professor of African-American Studies, the distinguished Louis Farrakhan's "divisive" visit to the campus in the 1980s. His other wrote my little heart out Duke Amcha, Stand with Us, and individuals such as Richard Adam Israel National News.