

The Water Crisis In Iran

Here.

If the country of Iran can't support the current population, where will the tens of millions of Iranians ("50 million" the Deputy Minister claims in the article) who will "have to migrate" go? Who will take them in? No Sunni country will do so. Possibly Syria, if the regime still holds on, to replace those Sunnis who have left Syria and now live in Turkey, Jordan, and Lebanon.
