

“Thinking Palestine’, Part II”

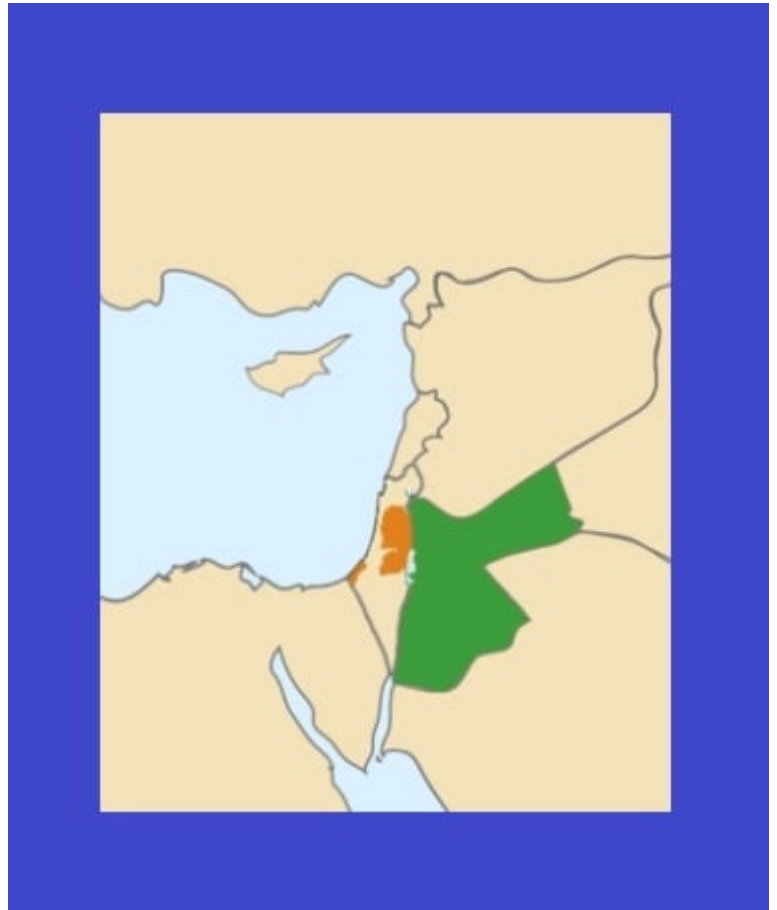

By Gerald A. Honigman

Before checking the most current news on the subject of creating a second state for Arabs—not first—within the original 1920 borders of the Mandate of Palestine, my own earlier assessments about what our President (whom I voted for—twice, as a NPA Independent) is up to in order to appease trillionaire autocratic Arab oil potentate, Hamas enabling pals an business partners in Qatar and other anti-Israel Gulf states on the issue of “Palestine” is below.

Having stated this, until recently, Trump’s Middle Eastern policies, especially during his first term, have been light years better than his Democrat predecessors:

The next analysis, with its two crucial internal links, is absolutely ESSENTIAL to better comprehend the complexities of this subject.

BEWARE the gruesome photos courtesy of Hamas and just plain “ordinary” Gaza Arabs who partook in the unspeakable bloodlust of October 7th and posted their “heroic” exploits on the internet...

To see which people the land in question was truly the 4,000 year old ancestral homeland of, despite periods of forced exile fighting various powerful empires, please read this well documented analysis filled with corroborating evidence from ancient sources—Roman, Persian, and so forth—in the next revealing link..“Gladiator II, the insatiable appetite of the Roman Eagle“...

Note it was the Jewish People who fought the conqueror of much of the known world for over five centuries, Rome and its Christian successor Byzantine Empire, from the 1st century clear up until the invasion of foreign Arab hordes in the 7th century C.E., for their freedom and independence in the ancestral homeland of their Patriarchs and Matriarchs.

Arabs arrived thousands of years later, just a few decades after scores of thousands of remaining Judaeans joined with the Persian army to fight against their common enemy, the Byzantines (who were forcibly converting Jews to Christianity) in the 7th century C.E.

Jihadi Arab armies spread out in all directions from a fast desiccating Arabian Peninsula to violently STEAL other aboriginal peoples' land—Hindus, black Africans, Buddhists, Kurds, Assyrian Christians, Judaeans, Persians, Egyptian Copts, Semitic but non-Arab Lebanese descendants of Phoenicians, etc. and so forth, on behalf of spreading their new faith, making those lands (supposedly) forever part of the Dar ul-Islam and/or “purely Arab patrimony”...and to hell with anyone else's rights or aspirations.

This Arab supremacist, conquering mindset on behalf of spreading the new Islamic faith has been the cause of the continuous Arab-Judaeans/Israeli, Arab-Kurd, Arab-black African, Arab (Arabized Pakistani)-Hindu India, Arab-Amazigh/Berber, Arab-pre-Arab conquest native Lebanese, Arab-Assyrian Christian, Arab-Egyptian Coptic Christian, Arab-Druse, and other struggles and conflicts in the region of MENA as well.

Countless millions of non-Arab peoples have been wantonly slaughtered, raped, maimed, enslaved, humiliated, and so forth in ARABISM's name. And yet Zionism is the cause that gets branded non-acceptable by much of the world—the national liberation movement of the Jewish People...

Tens of thousands of black African Christians and others have been beheaded and otherwise massacred by Arabized Islamists in Boko Haram and other jihadi groups just in recent years.

So, with all the above as in-depth background, here's the most current distressing news on the subject of an American President apparently joining the ranks of international Jew-haters to create an additional Arab terror state, dedicated to Israel's destruction, right next door to it.

When reading this article, be sure to keep in mind the fiction regarding a "Two State Solution."

Arabism already had almost 80% of the original 1920 Mandate of Palestine lopped off and handed to it by imperial Great Britain in 1922, today's Jordan.

British led Transjordanian forces crossed onto the opposite bank of the Jordan River to attack a minuscule, nascent Israel in 1948, forcibly stole historic Judaeen land in Judea and Samaria, where Hebrew Patriarchs and Matriarchs were buried some 3,500-4,000 years ago; Hebrew kings were anointed; King David was born in Bethlehem; the Temple of Solomon was built; and Hebrew Prophets preached.

Jacob struggled with the Angel of the Lord to become his better self, Israel, at Peniel; Judaeans rose up in Modi'in against their pagan Syrian Greek conquerors who tried to impose pagan ways and worship while also defiling the holy Temple (Chanukah story); Judaeen warriors and their families encamped upon the highly elevated fortress of Masada overland the Dead Sea in the Judaeen Desert fighting Rome; etc. and so forth.

Jewish history was made here over the millennia—not Arab, and certainly not non-existent "Palestinians."

So, what's really being demanded is a THREE state solution, with Arabism getting a second state within the original Mandate's borders. Why are they entitled to this while scores of millions of Arabism's victims remain totally stateless?

Question: Will the hypocritical French or Spanish, leaders among those making such demands upon Israel, give up land so that the truly aboriginal Basque people can at long last have an independent nation? See here for this nauseating hypocrisy exposed: “The Gall of the Gauls”...
