

Trebes – jihadist named as Moroccan petty criminal Redouane Lakdim – his woman was arrested last night.

The death of brave officer Lt Col Arnaud Beltrame overnight brings the death toll in the jihad at Carcassonne and Trebes to four. The jihadist Redouane Lakdim is also dead. The Paris correspondent of neighbours made the obligatory commendation of one of their own Lakdim was described by a neighbour as a “pleasant young man” who lived with his parents and sisters in a flat in Carcassonne, taking the youngest children to school every day. Don’t just arrest his woman – take and interrogate his parents, those siblings out of childhood, his numerous ‘cousins’ and FIND OUT WHAT THEY KNOW.

The extreme right-wing Rassemblement National issued a statement titled “When will the government realise that we are at war?” The attack was carried out by “a foreigner on the ‘S’ list who was also a delinquent,” the party noted. “What was he doing on French territory?”

Or British territory, or Belgian, German, Dutch, Swedish, Spanish, Danish and Finnish territory, or Norway and Italy where plots were foiled. Just to mention western Europe, I should include north America, Australia, Eastern Europe, Israel, much of Africa, much of Asia. What indeed. Jihad, that’s what.
