

Turning back the clock 60 years

BLM is planning a boycott of businesses owned by white people. Yet, prior to the civil rights movement shop owners placed "whites only" signs on their shop windows and black and white civil rights activists rallied against this. Did people forget?