

Two of the London Bridge terrorists named as Barking residents Khuram Shazad Butt and Rachid Redouane

From the Brett Freeman, from Dagenham, was enjoying a night out with friends when he was stabbed four times after three men – later shot dead by police in Borough Market– drove into pedestrians on London Bridge before stabbing members of the public. Dagenham-based football team May and Bakers tweeted: “Thoughts with our midfield general from last season. Speedy recovery Brett!”

The third man, as yet unnamed is a foreign national. According to the