

UK Police harassment: Tommy Robinson and his kids thrown out of a pub in Cambridge

He filmed the Police giving him no good reason as to why he was being told, ordered, to leave an entire city. Even the security staff of the pub intervened to say his party was causing no trouble.

Last night I pulled this video off Periscope and put it on YouTube quickly. I've now re-uploaded a new version fixing some problems and adding explanations.

It seems to me the UK police are trying to get Tommy to do something so they can send him back to prison. In prison he would be attacked again by Muslim gangs. They nearly killed him the last time.
