Apparently he is a Palestinian writer and poet from Sheikh Jarrah in East Jerusalem.

I haven't been reporting on the weekly (dubbed Jihaderday) pro-Gaza, pro-Hamas, anti-Semitic demonstrations in London and elsewhere. It's always the same thing, you will get it in your country almost the same, and why give them the oxygen of publicity. But this is a new low.

I challenge the police to arrest him – I bet they won't.

Robert Jenrick the MP and government minister tweeted in reply

We must normalise arresting and deporting people like this.

Jenrick is married to an Israeli Jewish woman. He was Minister for Immigration but resigned in disgust because he couldn't get the rest of government to do enough about illegal immigration, excess immigration and suchlike. Even those few members of government who can see the danger can't, or won't push hard enough for the necessary action.
