

Wanted: A Complete List Of Muslim Atrocities In The Last 20 Years

Why not post, on-line and possibly in newspapers, a complete listing of Muslim attacks, and Muslim plans or attempts to attack that may have been thwarted, in the Western world, or perhaps across the entire non-Muslim world? Wouldn't that get attention? Just a list of where and when an attack was planned, or carried out, and the number of victims, both killed and wounded.

A salutary and eye-opening compilation. Let the FBI, the Deuxieme Bureau, MI5 and MI6, the Shin Bet, and the secret services of every country (don't forget India, don't leave out Australia, don't forget the Japanese translator of Rushdie) collaborate on this. And enough about this or that attack by Muslims supposedly not destroying our non-existent "unity," our non-existent friendship and support in the line, based on a made-up threat, that so enthralled Majid Nawaz of the Quilliam Foundation tonight, that one about #I'llridewithyou supposedly made necessary after the last Muslim attack in Australia, even though there was not the slightest cause for any alarm over reprisal attacks on Muslims. As always, there were none. Let's get back to urging our security services to collectively compile that list, which could then be disseminated hither and yon.
