UTK: Put Christ Back in Christmas: Join Us in London This Saturday

This isn't a political protest — it's a celebration. A day to Put Christ Back Into Christmas.

What's Happening:

- Live music
- Opera singers
- Ricky Doolan & his gospel band
- Bible readings
- Candles, Santa hats, a beautiful stage
- A peaceful, festive gathering outside Downing Street
- Community, unity, and Christmas spirit

I want this to be a day we all enjoy, a moment to breathe, to celebrate, and to stand together as Christians.

When & Where:

Saturday, 13th December

Fascist #TommyRobinson wants to hide his message of hate & division under the banner of 'Christian nationalism'. ...

👤 Billy Bragg and Care4Calais

Billy Bragg, for those not familiar with his nasal drone is a champagne socialist 'folk' singer, who styles himself The Bard of Barking. He was indeed born in Barking east London which he left, but he returns if needed to berate his former neighbours for daring to be concerned at the demographic change that has turned the London Borough of Barking and Dagenham (where I used to live) from 80% white British in 2001 to 30% in 2021. How dare they vote BNP. How very dare they.

Meanwhile he sold his 25 room cliff-top house in Dorset for £3.15 million and is now believed to live in nearby Weymouth. How he earned so much money with no hit singles, no sell-out world tour and merely a couple of songwriting credits performed by someone (Kirstie McColl) who could actually sing I have often wondered. But I digress.

Also supported by the Rat in Chief (some call him weasle. but a weasle is a well established creature of the English countryside – the antithesis of Mayor Khan)

Who is still terrified by the bogeymen of the EDL, and who is only concerned about the Islamic inhabitants of London as this clip, which I cannot embed so follow the link, makes clear.

At 0.17, “politicians have a duty to address people’s legitimate fears, people are worried, MUSLIMS are worried...islamophobia...”

I can’t be there but I’m following some live feeds and I have friends present.

Stand up to Racism five minutes ago at 2.30 GMT.

And UTK Put the Christ back into Christmas just now. I know which looks more fun, and more wholesome.

For your information, the Metropolitan Police map showing where the several groups are allowed to go and not go. The Digital ID protest is separate, but has merit.

5pm in London and the meeting (NOT a demo, despite what the police and SuTR say) is nearly over. I have heard Carols, Christmas songs, Bible readings, testimonies and real preaching and teaching. God bless.

Update Sunday – some photographs my friend took within the carol service – Stand up to Racism said the numbers made it a flop; he begs to differ. Thank you for their use.
